Residents count cost of arson-hit pavilion

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS have been left to pick up the pieces after arsonists destroyed its community centre.

Conniburrow Pavilion was a lifeline to hundreds of people and used by a variety of groups for religion, socialising, education and child care.

Now locals are coming to terms with the effects of Friday night's blaze.

Chairman of the Community Association, Pauline Wallis, said: "Even though it's not really our responsibility, I feel terrible for everyone. I really do. The people I feel worst for are the senior citizens who've been using the centre for bingo twice a week – it's so important that they get out. Now there's nothing but a shell left. The army cadets have been using the centre for 15 years.

"Just before the fire they had come back from camp and left all their things in the centre. Everything has now been destroyed.

"Everyone in the area, and beyond, used to have all their parties in the hall – birthdays, anniversaries, receptions.

"I'm just devastated, everyone is. I can't understand who would do it, who knows what goes on in these people's heads?

"But it's not going to beat us. The centre will be back as soon as possible – bigger and better than ever. That's all I keep thinking. I just have to keep looking to the future, thinking about how wonderful the new place will be. If I didn't I'd cry.

"The centre had only just been done up. It was renovated in 2006, and then modernised last Christmas for the senior citizens' party, £2,000 was spent on the pavilion in this year alone.

"I want people to know that our office is still operating and anyone with problems can still call up for help."

The pavilion was taken over by the new community association three weeks ago.

A spokesman for MK Council said: "A new local residents' association recently took over the running of this pavilion and, as is standard practice in these matters, we changed the locks at the premises. This matter is now in the hands of our insurers and police so we can't really say much more at this stage."

Mrs Wallis added: "The changeover of committee happened because we weren't happy with the way things were being run."

Firefighters arrived on the scene at Conniburrow Boulevard at 4.10am after a call from a taxi driver.

A spokesman for Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue said: "We do not know how long the fire had been going, but by the time we were called out it was already too late. Five minutes after we had arrived the roof caved in."

Both the police and the fire service confirmed that the fire was started deliberately. No one was injured.

Great Linford South Neighbourhood Sgt Susan Herbert, leading the investigation, said: "The rear doors to the property had been forced."

"I am appealing for anyone who witnessed the incident or saw anyone in the area around the time acting suspiciously to contact police on 084548 505505.

Italian Job drivers raise charity cash

A HOMELESS charity is set to benefit from The Italian Job.

Staff from thecentre:mk are travelling nearly 3,000 miles in British classic Minis, aiming to raise more than £10,000 for the Ark Charity in Milton Keynes.

Setting off on Friday, August 20, three teams from thecentre:mk will travel 1,450 miles over four days to Valencia in Spain arriving just in time for the La Tomatina, a world famous tomato throwing festival on August 26.

Here the ramshackle rallyers will get their reward joining 40,000 people who will be waiting to throw squashed tomatoes at each other.

The three Minis will make the return leg producing a combined journey of 2,900 miles.

thecentre:mk teams are travelling in three red, white and blue Minis emulating the classic film, The Italian Job.

Since 1976, the Ark Charity has offered 24-hours-a-day, seven-days-a-week supportive accommodation to homeless and vulnerable young people and since opening has cared for more than 500 young people.

Dan Murphy, head of operations at thecentre:mk said: "It looks like this is habit-forming, back in 2009 myself and Andy Rogers took part in a rally to Timbuktu raising over £13,000 for MK Young Carers.

"This time we've more than tripled the number of people involved and we thought we'd do it in style, with red, white and blue Minis.

"We have all kinds of staff at thecentre:mk from office staff through to electricians so we have the in-house skills to plan the journey, fix the cars up, and provide vital phone support if anyone gets lost."

Sue Thomas, operations manager of The Ark Charity, said: "This is fantastic news for the team. The money from this event will help young people get a good start in adult life.

"Milton Keynes Council has stated that 48 per cent of all new tenancies allocated from 2007-08 were to those aged between 16-25 years old. Many people that present themselves as homeless are also in this age bracket. These are huge statistics and highlight a local problem."

Zorbing a taster for 'extreme' sports week

EVER wondered what its like inside a hamster's ball?

City kids got the chance to find out recently as they were pushed down a hill in a huge inflatable ball.

Zorbing is the latest craze for adrenaline junkies and, as

Kids sent explicit messages via a social networking site

A NUMBER of children have received explicit messages through a social networking site, say police.

Six children, all aged around 14, are understood to have received messages sent via Microsoft Live.

Police spokesman, Sarah Colston, said: "We cannot release any detailed information at present, as the investigation is ongoing."

"We do not know yet whether the messages were sent innocently by another child who did not realise the implications of what they were doing or whether it is of legitimate concern.

"Children who receive any messages of this nature should report it immediately to their parents or guardians, who should contact the police. Children should not engage in conversation with people they do not know and never arrange to meet anyone they have only had contact with online unless they are certain they know who they are and their parents are aware.

"Parents are encouraged to talk to their children about the dangers of talking and networking with strangers and should always keep a close eye on who their children are communicating with on social networks and if they ever have any concerns they should contact the police."

She also confirmed that there were no immediate connections between the children to her knowledge – other than their ages and the social networking site on which they were contacted.

To avoid children being targeted police are advising parents to:

- Agree rules as a family
 - Keep the computer in a family room
 - Talk about the consequences of giving out personal information or making information public
 - Get involved with your children online and encourage balanced use set time limits
 - Talk to your children about what to do if they do come across something unpleasant and teach them to be critical
 - Install parental and anti virus software to protect your computer's security
- If anyone has any information contact Thames Valley Police on 0845 8 505 505. If people don't want to speak to police or leave their name they should contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Callum Michie with his steel cow sculpture outside Bletchley College

Farm boy adds to city's cow herd

A BLETCHLEY student is celebrating introducing another fake cow to the city.

Callum Michie's life-sized metal sculpture, currently at Bletchley College, is set to be rented by the University Centre Milton Keynes for two weeks.

Callum, 17, from Leighton Buzzard said: "I'm very pleased that people are taking an interest in it – I thought it was just going to be in college.

"The sculpture took around 50 hours to make, and is made out of a mixture of metals, but mainly from steel.

"I decided to make the cow because the final exam's theme was agriculture and, living on a farm, I see them all the time.

"After the university is finished with the sculpture, I will leave it at the college for a while and then hopefully sell it."

Callum has now finished his arts and design course at Bletchley College, but will be returning in September to complete a course in photography.

Residents fume at 'waste muncher'

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

NEW home owners are angry an organic waste treatment plant may be built near the houses they only bought last year.

Residents of Dean Forrest Way, a new-build estate near Broughton, are worried about the smell, noise and traffic the plant, called an anaerobic digester, may bring.

One said had he known about the potential development he would not have bought his house.

If granted permission, the digester will be erected and operated by Renewable Power Systems Ltd next to the sewage treatment plant at Pineham.

The plant will compost the 35,000 tonnes of solid organic waste produced in the city every year, the bio gas from which will be injected into the national grid to generate electricity.

But as reported in MK NEWS, Anglian Water, which operates the Pineham works, has received two abatement notices from the council for smells emanating from the site, and residents of Dean Forest Way are concerned a new plant would add to the problem.

They also say the problem is exaggerated by the fact they weren't told about this project or the planned developments to the A5130 busway, which borders the street.

Home owner Paul Baines said searches into potential planning applications of concern which were performed before he bought his house last summer uncovered no major developments.

He said: "We got a letter in February telling us the A5130 was to be widened and the trees by our house would be cut down, so of course we were up in arms.

"They also failed to tell us that they had already tendered for the anaerobic digester."

As reported last week, the council has now arranged meetings with residents this month to discuss the A5130 plans.

And, according to the council, although the contract for the digester was out to tender since last summer, the site at Pineham was only looked at as part of the contract awarded in March.

This means the potential development would not have appeared on any searches performed by solicitors last year.

Andy Hudson, head of environment and waste at the council, now wants to reassure residents the plant is designed so all smells will be contained.

He said: "There shouldn't be any smell as the term anaerobic means 'without air'.

"Everything is in the building, and even the vehicles go in and out through a type of airlock. It is designed so that there will not be any odour in the plan."

He added: "We're happy to talk through things as I'm sure is the applicant."

The planning application and all objections are due to be heard by the council on September 16.

Taxi driver in court on wife murder charge

A MAN has appeared in court accused of murdering his wife.

The body of 31-year-old Naimo Moalin, of Ethiopia, was found strangled in Tolcarne Avenue, Fishermead on May 22. She had arrived in the UK three days earlier.

Musdafa Jama, 51, of Tolcarne Avenue, appeared at Luton Crown Court on Monday.

Defence lawyers asked for further time for a psychiatric assessment to be completed and no plea was entered. Mr Jama, a taxi driver, was remanded in custody until his next appearance at the same court on September 23.

The court heard he married Ms Moalin in Ethiopia in August 2009 and she arrived in Milton Keynes on May 19 this year.

Standing up to the city's car worshippers

SIR – Re: Public transport issues.
To councillor Vanessa McPake, I wish to say publicly, thank you for your efforts regarding the Arriva problems and congratulations for your courage in going ahead with the changes to parking charges in central MK.

It is about time someone supported public transport by standing up to the MK car worshippers and by considering the interests of those who look for a greener and more sustainable solution to MK's transport needs.

Well done Cllr McPake

Detached from cuts

SIR – It was fascinating to read the comments of Lib Dem Cllr Sam Crooks on the impending draconian cuts that his coalition Government are about to make in grants to local authorities (MK NEWS last week).

He spoke with an almost surreal detachment – as if this catastrophic decision had nothing to do with him or his party.

The reality is that, without the collusion of the Lib Dem Party, the Conservative Party would not be able to make the most savage cuts in public expenditure for almost a century.

The Conservative Prime Minister, David Cameron and his Lib Dem poodle, Nick Clegg, are about to embark on an ideologically driven programme of public sector cuts and privatisation which will cause great damage and hardship.

Sam tells us, through crocodile tears, that his Lib Dem council will make sure that 'those on lower incomes or otherwise disadvantaged people don't suffer' but the independent Institute of Fiscal Studies has already told us that the poor will be disproportionately affected.

As the numbers of teachers, teaching assistants, social workers, care workers, library staff, street cleaners, and other valued public sector workers are cut, and waiting times for services rise, the voters of Milton Keynes will be able to reflect on the role played by the Lib Dem Party – they are not innocent bystanders in the coming carnage.

Dave Brunwin
Walton Park, Pyxe Court

Sinister fantasy

SIR – Having read the latest Lib Dem leaflet from Cllr Sam Potts I wonder whether he could also be writing scripts for Harry Potter?

Both seem to contain fantasy, hilarity and a sinister undertone.

We have the first two covered with the big headline 'Lib Dems win in MK', 'we have turned the area into a

Differing cultures join in celebrating peace

SIR – Many thanks for highlighting the event at the Peace Pagoda at Willen Lake in last week's paper.

I have been a resident in Milton Keynes for several years but have never attended until this year following reading the piece in your leisure section.

It was a beautiful evening and the floating candle ceremony was marvellous.

It was great to see so many people from different cultural backgrounds together celebrating peace.

three way marginal' and his version of the council seats on MK Council.

At the last election we saw MKC remain without any party having a majority but the two MK parliamentary seats were both won handsomely by Msrs Lancaster and Stewart, Labour second in both with the Lib Dems coming in third.

Mark Lancaster increased his majority to just under 9,000, I think claiming the seat as a three way marginal could be a little spin spun too far?

The breakdown of the council seats were given as LD 24, C17 and L9 total 50, just to put the record straight Sam, there are 51 seats on the council and the breakdown is LD22, C17, L9, Independent 3. Total 51 (source MKC website).

It is noticeable he got both the Conservative and Labour numbers right but his own party wrong, maybe as the party chairman he wasn't keen on publicising two of his went independent on his watch.

The sinister footnote was his claim to be 'the toughest negotiator on MKC'.

Having twice claimed to have sorted out the flood defences in Stoke Goldington (first in the local press on the first anniversary of the floods, secondly in a leaflet during this year's election campaign), to make such a claim as we pass the THIRD anniversary is beyond belief.

Parish council meetings in Stoke are regularly attended by worried victims anxious to hear when work will begin, they have not been attended for many, many months by Cllr Potts.

As a result of constant pressure by the parish council with help from MP Mark Lancaster we understand work is finally going to start this autumn. As three years of negotiations provided absolutely nothing may I suggest 'toughest' be replaced by something more suitable?

ME therapy variations

SIR – Have any of your readers with ME (also known as chronic fatigue syndrome) tried graded exercise therapy, graded activity therapy or exercise on prescription?

If so, we need them to tell us about their experience.

There are significant variations between the outcomes reported by NHS clinics and those reported to us by large numbers of people with this illness.

We are working to find out why.

If you have tried one of these physical rehabilitation approaches, which one was it, how did it go and who administered the treatment?

Bike for Barnado's

SIR – Children's charity Barnardo's has been nominated as this year's official partner and main beneficiary of the BAPS Charities 30 Mile Bike Challenge.

This year's sponsored bike ride will take place in Milton Keynes, with the event beginning at the picturesque setting of Willen Lake on Sunday, August 15.

BAPS Charities is the social services arm of BAPS Swaminarayan Sanstha, one of the largest Hindu organisations among the Indian diaspora in the UK.

Recognised internationally for its humanitarian services, the work has year after year raised substantial amounts of money for charities in the UK. In April, they raised £25,000 for Barnardo's when 3,500 runners and walkers took the BAPS Charities 10k Challenge.

Ramadan FM presenters James Buckland, Leila Reeb and Mohamed Suleman

City's Ramadan radio back on the airwaves

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

RAMADAN FM will be getting a second bite of the pre-dawn cherry this summer.

Featured in MK NEWS last year, the volunteer-run radio station is on air 24 hours a day throughout the month of Ramadan, and it is back today following a successful debut in 2009.

Not just another string to the growing cultural bow of the city, Ramadan FM plays an important part in the Islamic community during the holy month of fasting.

Teacher Leila Reeb, one of the volunteers, explained intense fasting during the summer is particularly tough, as eating is not permitted during daylight hours - today, the fast will occur between 3.05am and 8.40pm.

She said: "In the summer it's hard because it's a long day, and Ramadan FM makes it go so quickly.

"Ramadan is for thinking about the suffering of those who can't eat, but we're also giving in service of others by helping to forget they haven't eaten.

"And it's not just fasting from food, but also drinking, smoking, relations with a partner, and saying bad things."

Mohamed Suleman, a lawyer by day, told MK NEWS the original volunteers weren't sure if they would succeed in bringing the station to the airwaves.

He said: "There are Ramadan radio stations in different cities, and we've always wanted one here.

"When we started we were asking ourselves if anyone was listening so early in the morning, but then we got feedback from people having their breakfast.

"There's nothing on the TV or radio at that time, so we get a lot of people tuning in. It's nice to know there are so many people listening during that time."

Not only is the station popular with people in the city, but it also broadcasts online to people around the world.

Leila said: "We had listeners from Saudi Arabia, USA, Tanzania and Somalia.

"We get people calling in and taking part in all of our shows from all over the place."

Producer and editor James Buckland, an architect by trade, said listener participation had become really important to the station.

He said: "I remember one show in particular where a listener saved us.

"Five times a day before each prayer we play a recording of the adhan, the call to prayer, as there's no way to perform this in Milton Keynes usually.

"One day as it was playing, the recording stopped for some reason. We were completely stuck until one guy called in and offered to do it for us live on air, over the phone."

The already-popular lineup of multi-faith and debate shows are back this year, but the team says they have learnt from previous mistakes and 2010 promises to be bigger and better, with new personalities and programmes showcasing local and world talent.

Mohamed said: "Last year we left everything really late, making the show up on the cuff as we entered the room.

"2010 is the next step and we have upped the game, with lots of preparation that started back in February, so it will be a lot less stressful."

But the team also want to stress that anyone can join in with the fun, not just Muslims.

Leila said: "We're going to explore facts and myths around Islam, and then ask people in Milton Keynes to see what questions they have and if we can answer them.

"We have different shows throughout the day, some fun and some serious. We have a youth show, a sisters' show for women's issues, and other-language shows in Tamil, Urdu and Somali."

"Last year in our multi-faith show we had the leaders of different religious communities in Milton Keynes, and had them debating religion and fasting. It ended up a debate on who fasted the most.

"It's like a one-stop shop for everything covering a lot of bases, and by the end of the month it's shocking how much we have fit in."

With so many new people coming on board and the full support of the community, the future is looking bright for the city's fledgling Ramadan station.

Mohamed said: "A lot of people actually want a full-time station, but financially and time-wise it is too difficult as everyone here is a volunteer.

"We're taking it one step at a time, but we're looking to continue the Ramadan FM brand for future generations to enjoy and take part.

"There are an estimated 10,000 Muslims in Milton Keynes, and we want them all to tune in."

Tune in to 87.7 fm until September 9, or listen on www.ramadanfm.com

City's panto performers join in Search for a Star

'Special' boys and girls wanted for Dick Whittington

GAVIN and Stacey star Joanna Page dropped in to Xscape last week to launch Robinsons' Search for a Star.

Up to 30 lucky boys and girls aged six to 16 can tread the boards alongside Joanna, this year's panto damsel in Dick Whittington, and other stars Luke Perry and Stavros Flatley at Milton Keynes Theatre this Christmas.

Auditions will be held on September 26 and applicants need no previous experience, just enthusiasm and that special something.

Joanna began her glittering career aged just nine, and has some sound advice for wannabe actors and actresses.

She said: "Just go along, relax and have fun."

"I was really nervous the first time I went to classes and auditions, but I enjoyed it because I loved being on stage, so just try to do the same."

But for those who are picked, Joanna also has a warning.

She said: "It'll be hard work - it looks like good fun and it is, but you rehearse for two weeks and perform for six."

"But in panto you're allowed to make mistakes, there's a lot of audience participation and when things go wrong you can include them. You just don't know what's going to happen when you're live."

Six-year-old Jessica Wright poses with Joanna Page and other panto characters at Xscape

Football fans' treat for Eleanor and family

TEN-YEAR-OLD Eleanor Carr was all smiles as she led out MK Dons with captain Dean Lewington ahead of the side's 2-1 win at Walsall.

The young Dons fan was made mascot for the day and was given the brand new 2010/11 kit by MK Dons. Walsall supporters clubbed together to buy tickets for Eleanor and her family after her supporters' bus was hit by a brick at the fixture last season.

Bletchley cllr moves to restore free swimming

A WEST Bletchley councillor hopes to restore free swimming for residents.

Cllr Liz Campbell will be moving the motion on August 23 to West Bletchley council to fund free swimming for pensioners and children in the area.

It follows the end of the last Government's free swimming initiative for children and over 60s.

Cllr Campbell said: "I am confident that this motion will be passed.

"This was a petty and mean-spirited cut from the coalition Government aimed at children and pensioners. Swimming has huge health and social benefits for these groups and parish councils should be encouraging this.

"The move to restore free swimming to West Bletchley residents is backed by the Green councillors group on West Bletchley Council, who want to see residents adopting a more healthy and sustainable lifestyle – £7,000 is a very small amount for West Bletchley Council to pay to provide free swimming. It is much less than West Bletchley Council (which has £1million in its reserves) currently spends on other projects. In time, I hope the council might extend this scheme to other groups of residents, such as the disabled or the unemployed. I hope that other parishes follow West Bletchley's lead and provide free swimming to their children and pensioners too."

HOVERCRAFT are replacing horses at Towcester Racecourse.

The World Hovercraft Championships are taking place at the National Hunt course later this month.

More than 150 hovercraft from all over the world are expected to take part in the championships from Wednesday August 25 to Sunday August 29.

Organised by the Hoverclub of Great Britain, the event includes two days of practice and time trials, followed by three days of intense racing on a course that comprises both land and water.

number of categories, from Junior to the high-action Formula One and attracts competitors from around the world, including Australia, Canada, Europe, New Zealand and the USA.

Battling for position in the World championships will be a number of British drivers including Formula Two champion, Tony Goldney from Milton Keynes and Darren Wallace from Leighton Buzzard.

Time trials take place on Wednesday and Thursday, with racing on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Doors open at 10am, with racing from 12.45 pm, until 6pm.

Entry to the time trials on Wednesday and Thursday is free and £15 per car on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

DCI Ray Summers said: "Kashari has a history of committing violent offences and we want to locate him as soon as possible. We are working closely with Northamptonshire Police and would ask anyone who thinks they may have seen Kashari recently or knows where he is to contact the police as soon as possible.

"I would urge members of the public not to approach Kashari directly, but to contact police."

Anyone with information about Kashari's whereabouts, should contact Thames Valley Police via the 24-hour non-emergency number, 0845 8 505 505. If you do not want to speak to the police, call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Cllr explains plans to axe free parking

THE former cabinet member for transport has moved to explain the reasoning behind plans to axe the city centre's free parking.

As revealed by MK NEWS, in July the Cabinet gave the go-ahead to remove 3,782 green parking spaces, turning them into standard 30p-an-hour bays, with premium bays also due to be increased.

The plans caused an outcry from shoppers and city centre workers alike, so now Alan Mallyon, who previously held the portfolio for transport, has told this newspaper why the plans are good for Milton Keynes.

He said: "We held a consultation to which about 3,600 people replied, and the number one thing people said was how unfair the system is.

"The free parking spaces are not free for those people who can't get there early enough, including those low-income workers and those who need them the most, like parents dropping their kids off in the morning, while those who can get there early enough are managers on higher wages.

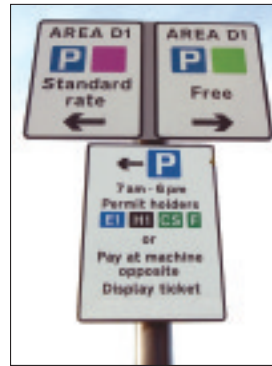

"Also, there is no such thing as free parking in Milton Keynes. City taxpayers are subsidising those free spaces for people who live outside Milton Keynes and come here to shop."

Cllr Mallyon also explained the scheme is based on simplicity, by reducing multiple tariffs to just standard and premium.

He added that several months ago, following the consultation, he arranged a summit in Bletchley with business owners in the city.

He said: "On the whole agreed they that there needed to be a change, and this proposal is a result of those consultations."

Electric buses to run on Coachway shuttle

THREE electric buses could soon be carrying passengers into the city.

MK Council cabinet member for highways and transport, Vanessa McPake, announced last week that she had been given the go-ahead for the project.

Companies can tender to supply the three eco-friendly buses, which could be running from the middle of next year and will be operated on a park-and-ride basis from the new Coachway to the city centre.

Cllr McPake said: "We're exploring it and looking at the cost. Unfortunately we wouldn't be the first city to do it, as Durham will have some soon."

The announcement came as south-east MEP Catherine Bearder visited Milton Keynes to see the steps being taken to become a low carbon city.

To encourage alternative-energy vehicles in the city, the council recently unveiled plans to introduce 250 car charging points and a £75 parking permit for low emission vehicles.

Mrs Bearder said: "Milton Keynes is really moving forward and putting its money where its mouth is by acting on carbon emissions and providing facilities for electric vehicles.

"This city is based on car transport, and the problem with cars is what's fuelling them. We need to take away the bad bits of cars."

Catherine Bearder, MEP for the South East and Cllr Vanessa McPake, MK Council cabinet member for highways and transport try out an electric car and bicycle

Cops' Falcon raids hitting drug crime

POLICE initiative Operation Falcon is being hailed as a success as the crackdown on drugs in the city continues.

Last week two arrests were made and drugs, cash and property were recovered from properties across Wolverton and the north of the city following a series of raids.

On Monday, August 2, six cannabis plants were seized from one property in Enders Croft, Medbourne, and herbal cannabis, two cannabis plants, Class A drugs and cash were recovered from another.

A 28-year-old man from Medbourne was arrested on suspicion of possession of Class A drugs, production of Class B cannabis, and possession with intent to supply Class B cannabis. He was released on police bail until 27 September.

A third warrant was carried out at a property in Aldergill, Heelands, where property believed to be stolen from a burglary, including an Xbox console, computer games and jewellery, were recovered.

A 15-year-old boy was arrested and later charged with two counts of theft.

Another warrant was carried out on Tuesday, August 3 at a property in Bayard Avenue, Downs Barn, where herbal cannabis was recovered

Drugs seized during an Operation Falcon raid by police ered and a 33-year-old man was cautioned.

MK police boss Superintendent Simon Eatwell said: "We will continue to bring down active drug dealers in the city and disrupt the supply of drugs on our streets."

"We are very aware of the close links between this type of crime and serious acquisitive crime, such as burglary, and with the ongoing enforcement will be able to focus on tackling the threat that drugs pose to our communities."

Anyone who has information which can help police in their fight against drug crime can contact the Falcon team on 0845 8 505 505.

Prison's teachers in strike over pay

KIRSTEN RAWLINS

kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

EIGHTY per cent of the teachers at Woodhill Prison went on strike over contract rows.

The University and College Union (UCU) claims that proposed contract changes by The Manchester College, which runs courses throughout England, could result in them losing more than £7,000, due to increased working hours and reduced holiday and sickness entitlement.

The union members protested outside of the jail on Wednesday.

A UCU representative said: "The new contract states that the teachers would have to work extra hours without extra pay. It will also mean redundancies for some and pay reductions for most."

"The prison's teaching system used to be run by Milton Keynes College. It is now run by TMC, which has around 70 prisons in the country - 40 of which are on strike."

According to Woodhill teachers, the new contract has changed their working days from Monday to Sunday, even though their pay has been reduced. They also allege that they were told should they not sign the contract, their hours would be advertised to other workers - this, they said, would mean losing their jobs.

Pickets outside Woodhill Prison

They also claim that when TMC took over the teaching at Woodhill, the company assured workers that they would be open to negotiation. But the teachers claim the contract offers no negotiation whatsoever.

One said: "I feel that we have been degraded in our profession. Teachers at the college have been given pay rises, but many of our teachers have faced pay-cuts and redundancy. We do the same job, yet it appears that they are being favoured."

"We have no complaints against the prison itself, in fact, if anything, we are trying to help the prison. We are doing an important job which prevents reoffending."

UCU president, Alan Whittaker, said: "Our members don't want to take strike action, but they have been left with no choice. It is deeply concerning that Britain's largest prison education provider is trying to force through new contracts that will seriously jeopardise prison education in this country."

"The new contracts would mean fewer rehabilitation opportunities for offenders. UCU believes education must be at the heart of any reform of our prison system and the evidence backs us up."

900 kids join in Playday event

MILTON Keynes hosted one of the country's largest Playday events at Furzton Lake.

More than 900 local children and young people took part in last Wednesday's activities.

The all-day event was funded by The Big Lottery Fund and run by Milton Keynes Council, The Parks Trust, Milton Keynes Play Association, Kidsplay and Community Mobilisers.

It's the fourth year that MK Playday has been hosted in Milton Keynes.

Playday is a national campaign where thousands of children and young people get out and play at locally organised events to celebrate their right to play.

Albert Hall date on cards for orchestra

A STRING orchestra is in with a chance to play at the Royal Albert Hall after winning a national accreditation.

The Milton Keynes Music Service's String Orchestra was commended after performing the Holberg Suite by Grieg at the Music For Youth competition held at Birmingham Symphony Hall last week.

David Rose, head of MK Music

Service, said: "We are delighted but not surprised that the orchestra has won an award. Euan Forrester and cello teacher Heather Dunne have worked tirelessly to ensure a high standard and the students have risen to the challenge."

"We hope that they get the opportunity to go through to the final of Music for Youth at the Albert Hall in November".

The young string players will be notified as to whether or not they are able to play in the London venue by the end of the summer.

The three-day-show at the Royal Albert Hall will include performances from wind, brass and string orchestras.

Have you ever considered becoming a Family Link Carer?

www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/fostering

tel: 01908 253206

Milton Keynes Fostering Team are keen to recruit people who can provide short breaks for children with learning or physical/severe disabilities, where the child's main home remains with their family.

As a Family Link Carer you will be linked to children who have significant disabilities. They may have physical disabilities, learning disabilities or both. This may mean that you will need to think about how you would care for a child who is unable to talk or communicates by sign language; or is in a wheel chair and uses lots of equipment; or struggles to understand other people; or has problems sleeping, playing or eating.

Involvement with the child may include taking them on trips during the day or an overnight stay. As a family carer your support is crucial to the child and family.

Full foster carer training will be given and once approved; you would be supported by a social worker and have access to additional comprehensive training together with support to manage any particular medical interventions. You will also receive a competitive allowance.

If you would like more information please contact:
Fostering Duty Desk on 01908 253206

The great outdoors is good for the mind, body and soul. It also doesn't have to put too much of a dent in your wallet or purse either. Whether its getting out into the countryside on a family walk, biking your way around a local beauty spot or packing up the back of a car and driving off to the coast to pitch up a tent, one thing is for sure the experience will put a smile on your face. If travelling in the car for escape is not appealing, there is always the outside space of your own home or the numerous lakes and parks around Milton Keynes to explore. Take a picnic on your walks, or have a BBQ with family & friends at home. Whatever activity you choose, make sure you experience the great outdoors this summer.

THE BRITISH SPIRIT OF ADVENTURE

Research from leading outdoor retailer GO Outdoors has revealed that Britain is a nation trapped indoors. The poll of 3,000 people showed that forty per cent of us have never stood on a mountain; half of us have never ridden a horse and two in five have never swam in natural water.

GO Outdoors, which specialises in equipment for walking, cycling, fishing, climbing, running, horse riding and skiing, is hoping that its latest superstore in Bedford will encourage more people to get out and enjoy the outdoors.

John Graham, MD of GO Outdoors, commented: "Our report showed that whilst three quarters of us like the outdoors, huge numbers of people have never tried the simplest activities due to never having been given the opportunity or have been too scared to try.

"Our team of staff is committed to giving the right advice for every outdoor pursuit whether you're camping in France or planning to conquer Everest and we offer a range of products that are suitable for all pockets.

"Our new superstore in Bedford, which includes a café and a five-metre climbing wall, is dog-friendly – so no one needs to miss out on the adventure!"

GO Outdoors Bedford is located on Norse Road, Bedford (MK41 0TA) and opens on August 14th. For more information visit goutdoors.co.uk

Shopping supremo goes

Next challenge: Robert Goodman

THE director of thecentre:mk has announced he is leaving.

Robert Goodman will leave the post in the next couple of months with the process to find his replacement already under way.

A statement from Mr Goodman said: "I've really enjoyed working in Milton Keynes and the shopping centre for the second time in my career and it was with some sadness that I handed in my notice back in May."

"Having led the team through the successful delivery of the shopping centre enhancement programme over the last three years, I am now looking forward to taking on the next challenge in my career.

"The shopping centre's success is inextricably linked to the success of Central Milton Keynes and the wider City and I am pleased to have had the opportunity to make a contribution here."

The centre recently opened its multi-million pound Destination Dining area within the complex but was also dealt a blow when the building was given listed status last month - raising questions about how much it will be able to expand in the future.

Steffi Place, second left, with other Scouts on their survival weekend with Bear Grylls

Island survival course a reward for Scouting gold

ABSEILING off a cliff face, skinning a rabbit and fighting fires were all in a day's work for one 12-year-old girl.

Milton Keynes scout Steffi Place spent last weekend with Chief Scout and TV star Bear Grylls on his private island for a 24-hour survival camp.

She was one of eight selected by the Scouts Association from its 400,000 youth members to join Bear at his island off the Welsh coast, based on scout leader recommendations and their personal testimonials about completing the Gold Award.

Steffi, of the Two Mile Ash & Great Holm Scouting Group, said: "Bear Island was great! It was a great start to the summer holidays - I worked really hard for my Gold Award and this was an excellent reward."

Chief Scout Grylls said: "Congratulations to Steffi and all the other scouts who joined me on the weekend. They showed great energy and commitment in learning some real adventure skills in outdoor survival. I so admire the motivation and enthusiasm that they have already shown in achieving their Gold Awards, and a big part of that is down to their leaders.

"I pay tribute those scouting leaders who gave up their time to help them achieve their goals. Scouting represents all that is great about life: opportunity, adventure and camaraderie. That is why I so encourage young people and adults from all walks of life to get involved and join in the adventure."

SIMON DARNELL

AMAZING

Inna
IF you're thinking of nipping off to iTunes in order to buy this, don't bother, there's a good chance you may end up feeling ripped off. Why's that, I don't hear you cry? Well, this is one of the laziest follow-up singles ever. All the things that made Hot such a big hit are here, and in almost the same order.

The way it sounds, the repetitive nature of the original, even the annoying bloke who says 'Go' for absolutely no reason, they're all back for the sequel.

Come to think of it, the only thing that's new on this song is the guitar, and that's probably only there because somebody thought 'If this is coming out in August, I suppose we'd better chuck something summery over the top then'.

At no point whatsoever did I get the feeling that anybody had bothered putting in any effort to make this stand out, and that's the worst thing about this song. A spark of energy or some genuine emotion could've rescued proceedings, but instead it drones on and on and does absolutely nothing of interest for three and a half minutes.

I'd describe this as a dog's dinner of a song, but now I think of it, I'm not sure even a dog would swallow this rubbish.

WONDERFUL LIFE

Hurts

NOW for some serious pop music, and by that I mean 'blimey, they're being very serious'.

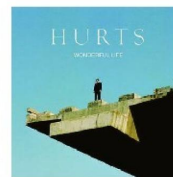

You can tell this is a serious one, because it has an instrumental break that lasts for nearly a minute (or in radio-speak, you could fit two adverts in that).

It's all very deep and meaningful and it's probably the sort of song that you'll only really get the benefit from if you put your hands together with only the fingertips touching whilst nodding your head knowingly as it plays.

To be honest, it sounds as though it took a wrong turn in 1988 and ended up here, and quite frankly so does the video, but even so it's a damned sight better than the stuff that was peddled back then by the likes of Breathe and (sorry, but for me this is one of the nearest things pop music has to saying Candyman in front of a mirror) Johnny Hates Jazz.

If you think I'm exaggerating how painful their music was, look up Turn Back The Clock.

Do you know something, I'm going to recommend this one.

Martin Shaw

COUNTRY GIRL

August 23-28. 7.30pm
Wednesday and Saturday
matinee 2.30pm
CLIFFORD Odette's The Country Girl comes to Milton Keynes Theatre as part of a short national tour prior to opening in the West End at the Apollo Theatre in October.

Almost three decades ago Bill Kenwright had his first West End hit with The Country Girl at the featuring Martin Shaw as the hotshot director of a new Broadway play. This season Kenwright will present the same play in the same theatre and with the same star - only this time Shaw will play the role of former theatrical great Frank Elgin, starring alongside Jenny Seagrove as his long-suffering wife.

Jenny Seagrove

The part originally played by Shaw will be performed by Mark Letheren. Shaw and Seagrove, stars of the hit BBC drama Judge John Deed, are reunited to appear on the West End Stage together for the very first time.

The Country Girl is the powerful story of washed-up actor Frank Elgin a desperate and demanding alcoholic who is offered a comeback chance to star in the next Broadway play by young director Bernie Dodd As the 'Country Girl' of the title, Jenny Seagrove plays his long-suffering wife Georgie. Believing that Georgie is the reason for Elgin's career decline, Bernie strikes up a stormy relationship with the actor's wife - but how far should a woman go to redeem the man she loves?

LEISURE CLUB AT WHITTLEBURY HALL HOTEL

Meeting the machines

The Leisure Club at Whittlebury Hall Hotel and Spa has launched a 10 day membership for £10 campaign as an affordable way for people to try before they buy. MK NEWS sports reporter SIMONE CORGAN signed up to the deal to see what they have to offer

ON day one I am given a tour around the Leisure Club and introduced to my fitness instructor, Becky.

After having my heart rate and blood pressure checked my Body Mass Index (BMI) is recorded when my weight and height is noted - which is when I discover I'm 5ft 5ins tall and having been selling myself an inch short for some time.

Then I meet the machines at Whittlebury Hall's gym.

Becky shows me how each machine works with different programmes, speeds, inclines and how to work the freeview TV monitors.

More importantly, after some time on the running machine, she shows me a fan button which proves to be a brilliant tool.

I meet my arch nemesis (the cross trainer) as well as the cycling machine, which I'm advised to use as a warm-up and not much more.

The selection of weights boggles my mind slightly, but thankfully there are instructions on each machine to tell me exactly how to use it and what muscles I'm working.

Before my session finishes I'm handed an exercise ball so Becky can see how strong my core is. The answer? Not very strong at all.

I lift my feet off the floor and wobble a lot. The gym staff certainly have their work cut out with me.

In an attempt to mix up my routine slightly one day I opt for an hour long boxercise session to learn correct boxing techniques while having a fun and intense workout.

The instructor for the class, Liam, pushes the class hard and it's tough, but through the pain I still manage to smile and thoroughly enjoyed the workout.

When I return to the gym I work through the fitness programme that has been designed especially for me by Becky.

Every workout begins with a warm-up on the cross trainer, I'll admit we're still not the best of friends, day after day I have heavy legs when I jump off but the rest of my sessions are enjoyable. The running machine is not as bad as I first feared, I gradually work up the speed during my 20 minutes, although I do manage to pull the emergency stop tag by accident as I hear on the TV that David James has signed for Bristol City.

One area I usually avoid like the plague is the weights section, however, it is a crucial part to my new fitness drive and the myth that the weights are only for the men is quickly dispelled.

As the days pass by the cardiovascular work becomes easier, and I begin to feel the benefits on the repetitions with the weights.

I do struggle to get to grips with the exercise ball but I'm determined to stick with it because the programme Becky designed for me is working and I now look forward to my regular trips to the gym.

You can try out the 10 day Leisure Club membership for just £10, and if you take out a full membership in August there will be no joining fee and you get one free month. For more information call 0845 400 1404 today and quote 'Ten10'.

MKLIFE EATING OUT SUMMER IN THE PARKS

TASTE LIFE

THE SWAN

Salford
01908 281008

Reviewed by Kirsten Rawlins

IF rustic fine-dining takes your fancy then The Swan at Salford is the place.

Only a ten-minute drive from central Milton Keynes, The Swan is set in the middle of the beautiful countryside which Salford boasts, and the atmosphere is that of a traditional country pub, with a new head chef whose cooking is an absolute delight.

The restaurant has a select menu for each season, and the summer menu is packed with delicious options. And – as if it wasn't hard enough to choose from the menu – they also have a specials board which looks equally as enticing.

As my friend and I pondered the menu we were treated to efficient yet friendly service and, with the help of the waitress' advice, we finally came to a decision while enjoying a bowl of olives and fresh, crusty bread.

I had a starter of rare roast beef with a fresh and delicious watercress and stilton salad with pickled shallot dressing. The beef truly stood out, being juicy and tender with a deliciously strong taste, further exaggerated by the stilton.

My friend's starter of grilled tuna steak, saffron and black olive linguine and roast red pepper butter was truly outstanding.

The tuna was pink in the centre with a cooked outer layer. This was combined with a linguine which although tasty, did not compare to the excellence of the tuna.

For the main I had Turkish-spiced lamb steaks served with tabbouleh and aubergine chutney – a rich dish with Turkish spices, the tabbouleh giving the dish a strong, Arabic feel. The lamb, although a little fatty, was tender and tasty, and the portion was very generous.

My friend chose the aubergine and tart fine served with Parmesan and a truffle cream. The dish contained plenty of juicy aubergine, much to his delight, and the plentiful truffle cream was strong yet creamy.

Though the dish was little smaller than he would have liked, it left plenty of room for dessert.

For dessert I chose the chocolate and mint bavaois with a dark chocolate mint crisp which was rich and delicious making friend envious.

He chose the cherry pie with vanilla ice cream which, although simple, had a homely taste fitting the rustic gastropub feel.

Make sure to sample the wine list, carefully constructed by co-owner, author and wine-selector Jo Eames.

The Quinta do Noval 10-year-old tawny port is a dessert wine not to be missed.

PARK LIFE

Stay safe this summer

WITH the school holidays in full swing thousands of people are out and about enjoying the city's many beautiful parks, lakes and rivers. There's nothing better than being out in the fresh air and with increased activity in the parks it's especially important that people enjoy the summer holidays safely.

This year The Parks Trust has teamed up with SaferMK to promote a summer campaign called 'What Lies Beneath' to warn people about the potential dangers of swimming in Milton Keynes' lakes and rivers. They've produced postcards, depicting people jumping into rivers and lakes and showing items that can be found under the water that you can't see such as reeds, broken glass and old shopping trolleys.

These postcards were sent out to all primary school and secondary school children ahead of the start of the summer holidays.

On a hot summer's day it might be tempting to take a dip in open water but the water is much colder than you think and besides the danger of drowning there are other hidden dangers lurking beneath the surface.

These include long reeds that people could get tangled up in, broken bottles or other sharp objects that you could cut yourself on.

This water is also shared by numerous animals including rats and, if it is swallowed by accident or it enters an open wound, you could be infected with Weil's disease.

If you enjoy swimming, Milton Keynes has many really good swimming pools and these are the only places where you can be sure of being in a safe, clean and warm environment. There are also many supervised water-sports activities and clubs.

Please help us to keep the waterways safe and if you see anyone swimming in lakes or rivers call Thames Valley Police on 08458 505 505. You can find more information about water safety at www.safermk.com and www.theparkstrust.com

It's a slightly tenuous link but water is also the theme of two of the films in this month's Open Air Film Festival at Campbell Park.

On Sunday, August 22 there is the watery escapades of the cute little clownfish in Finding Nemo and in the evening the classic musical Singin' in the Rain (umbrellas optional).

The big films for Saturday, August 21 are children's favourite Chitty Chitty Bang Bang and the evening blockbuster is Dirty Dancing.

More than 10,000 people attended last year's event, so grab your friends, bring a picnic, popcorn, seats, blanket or rug and get an afternoon, evening or weekend's entertainment for free.

For more information on the free Open Air Film Festival or any other Parks Trust events please call 01908 233600 or visit www.theparkstrust.com.

personal service & quality advice for residential sales

it's true what they say, you know...

Well,
the flat is sold...
many, many thanks
for all your work on
it. I think you have restored my faith in your profession!

His level of service was second to none... Not only did he help us through the whole process, setting us up with excellent solicitors and always being on hand to smooth over any bumps in the road, but he has continued to be of assistance long after completion.
We would highly recommend
Christopher Rose Property
Consultants.

Thanks Chris, it has been an absolute pleasure dealing with you thus far, hope we can do more business!

Many thanks for your regular updates.

I must say this is so much better just knowing what's happening rather than having to keep wondering, really appreciate it...

Thank you very much for your assistance
through the purchase,
your efficiency and
regular communication eased us through the process.

Thanks for all your work... you really do work hard for your money!

In Christopher Rose
you get an agent who does what he says he will do with the utmost respect and consideration and who is proactive and communicative.
A shame the rest of the industry is not to the same standard.

Buying or selling (and I have done both through Christopher Rose) and you will be afforded the same service and your ambitions met.

From viewing the property and keeping me informed of all the developments, and to finally completing your service was excellent and I'm sure things would not have happened so smoothly if it was not for your hard work.

At first we went main stream and a condescending saleswoman from  decided her opinion of what we wanted was the only thing that mattered and that a three bedroom house would not suit our 'pocket'! Comparing that experience to Christopher Rose is like the proverbial chalk & cheese, at every step of the purchase process Christopher Rose was more like an active partner as opposed to a salesman. We would never ever dream of using anyone else in the future as anything else could only be disappointing.

we've been given the thumbs up!

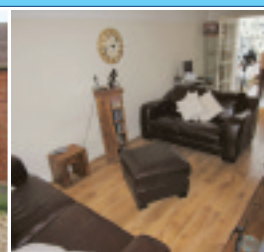

Deanshanger £325,000

A four bedroom detached property offered for sale in excellent condition and situated in the highly desirable village of Deanshanger. The property has three separate reception rooms all laid with Amtico flooring and a kitchen/breakfast room with built in appliances. Upstairs there are 4 bedrooms, three of which have built in wardrobes with the master having an ensuite shower room as well. To the front there is a good sized block paved driveway which leads to the detached double garage.

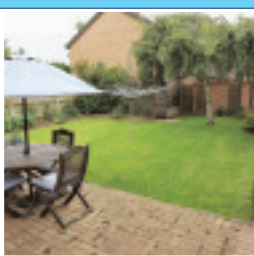

Potterspury £164,995

An extended two bedroom semi detached property offered for sale in very good condition with no upper chain. The property has a refitted kitchen and bathroom and is double glazed. There is a conservatory added to the rear of the 19ft lounge with doors going out to the garden and off road parking to the front for at least 3 cars. The accommodation briefly comprises: entrance hall, lounge, kitchen, breakfast room, conservatory, two bedrooms, bathroom, rear garden, off road parking.

Bradwell Common £249,995

A four bedroom detached property situated on a corner plot within a cul-de-sac. The property is well presented with PVCu double glazing and a recently refitted ensuite shower room. There is an integral garage, a downstairs cloakroom and wardrobes in three of the bedrooms. The kitchen has been refitted and knocked through into the dining room to create a large kitchen/diner.

Middleton £349,995

A four bedroom detached property with a double garage. A well presented family home situated within this popular residential area. The kitchen and dining room have been linked to create a kitchen/family room and a conservatory has been added to the rear. There is also a downstairs cloakroom and an ensuite dressing area and shower room to the master bedroom.

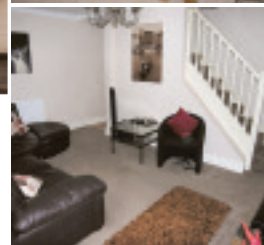

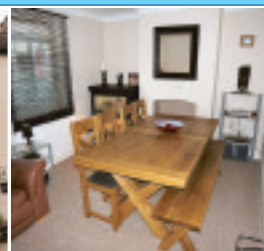

Bradwell Village £114,995

A one bedroom end of terrace property. The property has had PVCu double glazing installed and both the kitchen and bathroom have been refitted. There is an enclosed garden and off road parking. In our opinion an ideal first time or buy to let purchase.

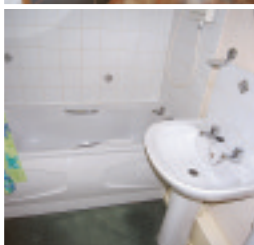

New Bradwell £155,000

A well presented Victorian style mid terrace property. Situated in a no through road within this established area. The layout has been altered and extended to create a more contemporary feel. There is a refitted kitchen, a first floor bathroom with separate shower and a separate dining room. The loft has been boarded and had velux style windows installed. It is currently used as an exercise room. Further benefits include PVCu double glazing, a breakfast area and an enclosed garden.

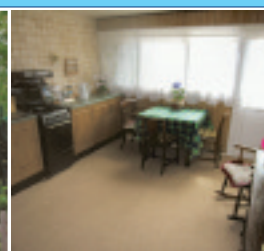

Browns Wood £89,995

A one bedroom ground floor apartment which is one of eight situated within this purpose built block. The property is double glazed and has a fitted kitchen with built in oven and hob, allocated parking and electric heating. The accommodation briefly comprises: entrance hall, lounge, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom. The property is being offered for sale with vacant possession.

Beanhill £119,995

A three bedroom mid terrace bungalow, offered for sale with vacant possession. The property is situated within a cul-de-sac and is in walking distance of local shops. The property has PVCu double glazing, gas radiator central heating and the kitchen units have been refitted. However, in our opinion work is required to the decoration.

Higham Cross £659,995

A barn which has been painstakingly converted by a local builder for his own occupation. The property has virtually been rebuilt using reclaimed, stone, brick and timbers from the original site. It is in a secluded position, approached via a bridleway along with a small number of other farmhouses/barn conversions. Set amongst open countryside with stunning views back towards the equestrian centre and church spire. The finish is of the highest of standards with zonal under-floor heating, granite worktops and oak internal doors.

Fenny Stratford £595,000

Grade II listed former farmhouse believed to date from the 17th century with later 18th century additions. Manor Farm is set on a plot of approximately 1/3rd acre including large lawned garden with a southerly aspect. Carefully maintained and retaining much character to include exposed beams and leaded light windows. The ground floor accommodation includes four separate reception rooms, all accessed via the entrance hall which opens out into the kitchen. A delightful family home which is worthy of an internal viewing and having the fantastic benefit from being within walking distance to Bletchley train station.

Aspley Heath £995,000

A substantial detached property situated at the end of Church Road, diagonally opposite the woods. The current owners have extended the property to create versatile accommodation. There is potential for a ground floor annexe and a first floor bedroom suite comprising of three rooms and a shower room. A refurbishment programme has been started with all bathrooms having been refitted. There is however scope for further improvement with the kitchen in particular having potential for enlarging and refitting.

Oldbrook £269,995

A four bedroom detached property situated on a generous corner plot close to Central Milton Keynes. The property has a separate dining room, a utility room and a detached double garage. There are built in wardrobes to two of the bedrooms and ensuite shower room to the master.

MK Dons assistant manager JOHN GORMAN writes exclusively for MK NEWS every week

I HAVE to admit even though I've been involved in football for a long time there were still a few nerves before Saturday's win at Walsall.

We always felt, especially after our pre-season, that we were in line to go out and get a win but on the opening game of the season you never really know what to expect from your opposition.

I think it was an important day for everybody to get a win in the first game as a new coaching unit and a new team.

Everyone, including the chairman, was absolutely delighted in the dressing room and to be fair to our skipper Dean Lewington he brought it to our attention that it had been 11 games the team had gone without a win – so it was great to get that monkey off our back.

Now we've got Southampton to come as our next home game and we know that's going to be a difficult game as they started off with a loss, a game they probably expected to win, and they'll be more determined now to get three points from us.

I was assistant manager under Glenn Hoddle when Southampton were in the Premier League, as well as caretaker, and chief scout so it's a club that is close to me.

MK Dons as a club didn't have good results against them last season and Karl is very aware of that.

He wants to put that record straight.

I've had bogey teams in the past, in fact when I was assistant at Tottenham, funny enough Southampton were one of them.

They've always been a team that is difficult to beat.

That's why it was important that we got a result against Walsall - it was a big boost for us, gives the lads a lot of confidence, there's a real buzz about the place.

Southampton's defeat to Plymouth doesn't give a true reflection because they were missing Rickie Lambert and Adam Lallana.

I still think they'll be right up there this season, we just have to make sure they don't get any points against us on Saturday.

Not this time: Dons' Danny Woodard watches as Mark Carrington is is denied by Scott Doe

Deadly Jabo sticks a knife in Daggers

Walsall, cancelled out Damien McCrory's first half opener shortly after the break.

The Dons were out of sorts in the first 45 minutes but Ibehre's clinical touch allowed the home side to maintain their 100 per cent record against the Daggers and record their first home win since March 9 at the same time.

A sluggish start saw Daggers goalie Tony Roberts making an error early on, leaving Mark Arber to mop up at the back before Ibehre could muster a shot.

Yet, 13 minutes in Daggers found a deadly touch as McCrory stepped up to the right of the Dons' box and brilliantly curled his free-kick around the wall and beyond the helpless Martin.

Dons, a little shell shocked by their own poor start, went on the hunt for an equaliser with Lewington releasing Balanta down the flank, allowing the QPR-loanee to drag a cross along the goalmouth but Jermaine Easter's back heel failed to connect.

The Dons' fluid movement, which fans had come to expect after a successful pre-season, was noticeably absent resulting in boss Robinson barking orders from the touchline midway through the first half.

Adding to the home side's frustration was the sight of Pele limping off shortly after the half-hour mark leaving Robinson to reshuffle the back line with Lewington moving inside and Adam Chicksen slotting in at fullback.

Inevitably, the Dons picked up the pace and applied pressure but when a Peter Leven corner failed to be cleared Balanta's cross was nodded directly at an untroubled Roberts.

After the break Robinson's men showed more hunger and desire, with Lewington heading Leven's corner inches wide before Easter was denied by a very late offside decision.

Easter appeared to have rolled on the shoulder of Scott Doe to head home whizzkid Balanta's accurate cross but there were puzzled expressions on the field, in the dug out and in the stands as the goal was ruled out.

However, the goal they had been hunting for came less than five minutes later when Ibehre timed his run to perfection to latch on to Easter's ball and fire through the legs of Roberts to level the score.

Play became a touch erratic as both sides were keen to find a winner, Roberts was the villain following a high foot into the body of Ibehre, while Luke Chadwick's 54th minute introduction was a pivotal part of a resurgent Dons' effort.

Robinson's last throw of the dice came 15 minutes from time when he introduced a third striker in the shape of Sam Baldock.

Confusion at the back could have allowed Daggers' sub Peter Gain a moment of glory as the Dons goal was wide open, but a rash effort fell well off target.

And it was an error from Dagenham's defence that allowed the Dons to seal a spot in the second round.

Doe cut a shattered figure as Ibehre picked off his lazy pass back to emphatically ensure the Dons return to Carling Cup action in the week commencing August, 23.

MK DONS: Martin, Lewington (c), Easter, Balanta, Carrington, Guy (Chadwick 54), Woodards, Ibehre, Pele (Chicksen 31), Howell (Baldock 76), Leven.

SOUTHAMPTON

League One
Saturday, August 14
stadiummk KO 3pm

THE first home game of MK Dons' season is set to be an absolute cracker. There is no better way to raise the curtain at stadiummk than by hosting title favourites Southampton – especially as Dons will be gunning for revenge having lost to the Saints on four occasions last season.

But with Southampton losing the opener at home to Plymouth Argyle, fans are hoping Saturday is the day when the Dons break their duck against the Saints.

Peter Leven and Mathias Kouo-Doumbe are back from suspension. Saints boss Alan Pardew is hoping star striker Rickie Lambert, who netted four against the Dons last season, will be back to fitness.

get it.

"Dean Lewington reckons he got a little touch on it so he's taking it as an assist but as long as it went in I don't care."

When asked what changes had come since Robinson stepped in to former boss Paul Ince's shoes, the former Crew man added: "There's a slight difference it's a little more organised and I think we've got better team bonding."

"If we get in the play-offs then we're going to try and win it through that but our main aim is to win promotion."

Dons, with Dietmar Hamann controlling every move in midfield, took the lead minutes before the break when Saddlers' keeper Jonny

Robinson's last throw of the dice came 15 minutes from time when he introduced a third striker in the shape of Sam Baldock.

Confusion at the back could have allowed Daggers' sub Peter Gain a moment of glory as the Dons goal was wide open, but a rash effort fell well off target.

And it was an error from Dagenham's defence that allowed the Dons to seal a spot in the second round.

Red Bull boss in crash

RED Bull Racing's technical director Adrian Newey was hospitalised on Sunday after crashing during a Ginetta sports car race at Snetterton.

Precautionary checks were needed after he was removed from his car on a stretcher. Newey was leading a train of four cars when he was nudged off the track before being hit side on by another driver.

The race was red flagged and medic's checked Newey before he was taken to hospital.

Ginetta chairman Lawrence Tomlinson confirmed that Newey had escaped serious injury: "Adrian has been taken to a local hospital as a precautionary measure after being clipped by Julien Draper of Barwell Motorsport which caused Tony Hughes of Speedworks to have a side on collision with Newey's DynoJet car."

Red Bull driver Mark Webber, speaking on social networking website Twitter, said: "Spoke to Adrian last night, he's in good spirits."

Formula One is currently on a factory shutdown but will be returning on 27-29 August for the Belgium Grand Prix.

Badminton pair seeded

BADMINTON European bronze medalists Nathan Robertson and Jenny Wallwork are two of England's nine-man squad to be seeded for the Yonex BWF World Championships.

The pair go into the draw as 9/16 seeds behind Indonesia's two-time former world champions Nova Widianto and Liliyana Natsir and Denmark's second seeds and defending champions Thomas Laybourn and Kamilla Rytter Juhl.

Robertson and Wallwork are ranked number 12 in the latest World rankings and Robertson will be hoping to reclaim the world title he previously won in 2006 with Gail Emms.

After Paris, the pair will be in Delhi for the 2010 Commonwealth games. Robertson was a gold medal winner in the 2006 Melbourne games with Emms.

Duffy new golf champ

ASPLEY Guise and Woburn Sands Golf Club held their Ladies Golf Championships last week and Stephanie Duffy walked away with the title.

After 36 holes, Duffy scored 157 which allowed her to beat reigning champion Helen Taylor.

Duffy who plays off a handicap of five had never won the title before.

Running alongside the championship was the Handicap trophy which was won by Dorothy Blackburn.

Up for the cup: Mark Carrington, Danny Woodards and skipper Dean Lewington attack a corner against Dagenham and Redbridge last night

to win

Brain fumbled and allowed Sam Baldock to get off the mark.

Yet, Manny Smith's towering header moments in to the re-start breathed some life in to Walsall's hopes, and Robinson was encouraged to see his team push on for the victory.

He said: "The way they conducted themselves, the way they moved the ball around and their enthusiasm for Milton Keynes Dons was immense."

Meanwhile, former West Bromwich Albion defender Pele agreed non-contract terms and Tom Flanagan signed his first professional contract with the club.

'Muzzy' Wales signs up for engine room

MICHAEL 'Muzzy' Wales has signed up to his eighth season with the city's ice hockey side MK Lightning. Lightning have re-signed the Gillingham-born forward after playing a key role in their title winning campaign.

And as they look to keep hold of the Champions tag player-coach Nick Poole believes Wales is an important player on the ice and in the dressing room.

Speaking of his latest recruit Poole said: "Muzzy is one of our engine room players and we are really pleased to have him back for another season."

"He has worked hard on his game over the last few years and we are starting to see a lot more offence from him and I know that will continue this coming year. "More importantly is the energy level he brings and the consistency in which he brings it. He is an annoying player to play against and I want him to stay that way."

Poole added: "He is a real character in the changing room and has a habit of coming up with some timely goals."

NEWPORT Pagnell climbed off the foot of the table with an impressive win over third placed North Crawley.

After putting 222-8 on the board Newport Pagnell sailed to a comfortable 164 run victory as they dismissed North Crawley for a lowly 58.

New Bradwell's lead at the top has been cut to six points after they crashed to a 91 run defeat to Studham.

It was Studham who went in to bat first to post 174-6 on the board, and then claimed ten New Bradwell wickets for just 83 runs.

Milton Keynes City picked up 30 points from their 87 run victory at home to Aspley Guise.

City (254-4) are in fourth following their comfortable win over Guise (167 all out) while second placed Cublington (96-3) strolled to a seven wicket win over Elstow (92 all out).

Elsewhere, Milton Keynes stretched their lead at the top of division two to 80 points with an eight wicket win at Shenley Church End and Cublington are leading the way in division three despite being held to a draw by Stoke Hammond.

Lions given three weeks to find home

MK Lions have three weeks to find a new home in Milton Keynes.

The future of the city's basketball side remains in the balance as their hunt for a base continues to hit stumbling blocks.

As reported on www.mk-news.co.uk last Wednesday, the Lions released a statement confirming they will no longer be playing home matches at thecentre:mk.

The search for a temporary venue, ahead of their permanent move to the arena at MK Dons' stadium next September, has seen owner Vince Macaulay considering the old Sainsburys unit at the Food Hall.

The British Basketball League have given the club until the end of this month to state where they will be playing.

Macaulay told MK NEWS: "I'm sure there's a place in Milton Keynes for us we just have to find it. We have the seats, the hoops, the players and the fans we just need a building in excess of 15,000 square feet and eight metres high.

"This is a top flight professional basketball team struggling to find somewhere to play in a World Cup city, and in a country hosting the Olympics in two years time."

Last season Lions played a one-off game at Stoke Mandeville but Macaulay said: "If we're playing in Stoke Mandeville we may as well play somewhere completely different where we can tap into a basketball market."

Lions coach Mike New, who made point guard Stefan Gill his first signing on Monday, is recruiting players knowing their is a realistic possibility the team might not be in the city.

Last week the BBL fixtures were announced and MK Dons, after their BBL Trophy matches, are set to start their championship at home to Mersey Tigers on Sunday, October 10.

A spokesman for the British Basketball League said: "I can confirm that the Lions have been given an extension until the last week of August to confirm their venue for next season."
